Twitter Thread by AP Entertainment

AP Entertainment
@APEntertainment

Phil Collins, Neil Young and the estates of Tom Petty and Prince have all objected after the Trump campaign played their hits at public rallies. The resulting flurry of cease-and-desist letters is indicative of a cultural chasm unique in modern