Vijayaasana Perumal Kovil / Thiru Varagunamangai Perumal Temple is one among Nava Tirupati, and also one among 108 Divya Desham. Mahavishnu is worshipped as Sri Vijayasanar and Lakshmi Devi as Varaguna Mangai Thaayar.

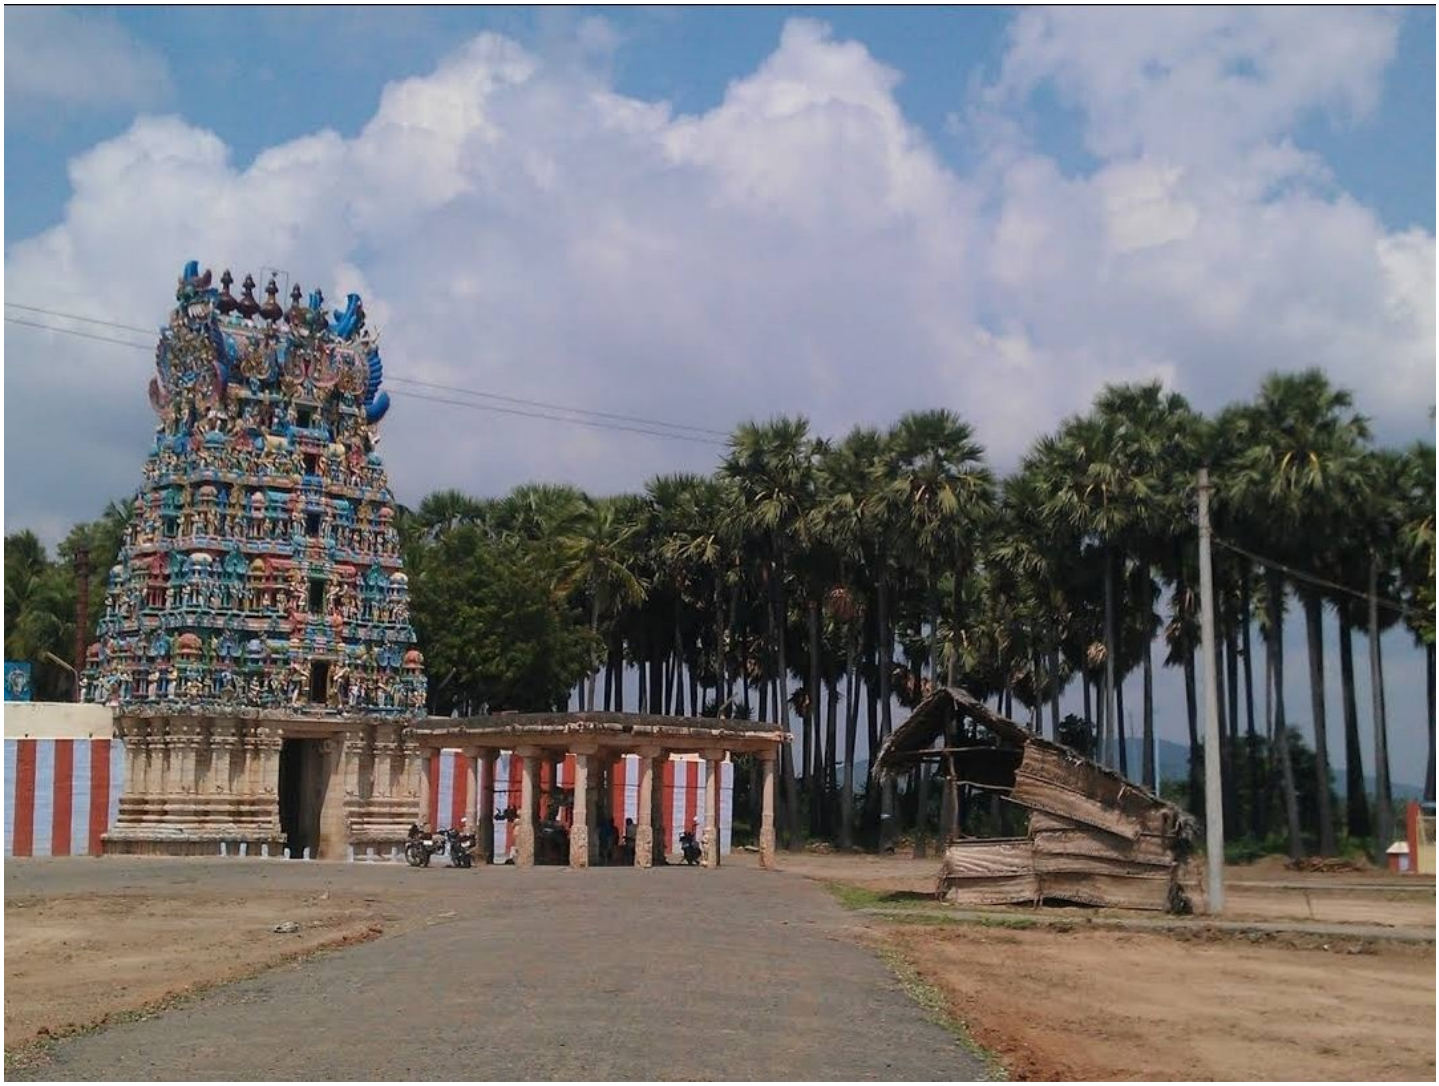
Mahavishnu gives relief for Navagraha dosham in each of the Nava Tirupathi. This temple is Chandra ( moon) parihara sthalam.

Sthala Puranam says that, in a vilage called Punya Gosham lived a Brahmin named Vedavi. He was a great Vishnu Bhakta. He wished Mahavishnu's darshan.



Mahavishnu went to him as an old Brahmin and told to chant a particular Manthram here at Varaguna Mangai Temple. Vedavi came to this area where temple is now located, and did tapasya here. Mahavishnu appeared and gave Moksham to Vedavi. Thus he attained Mukthi

It is believed that Mahavishnu gave darshanam to Savithri, who fought with Yama for her husband. Devotees visit this temple to perform Tarpanam for the departed souls. Vaikunta Ekadashi is very famous here.
