■The philosophy of Charvakas■

This thread:-
1:- Will give you the basic info about Charvaka philosophy.
2:- will show you similarities between the statements of Charvakas and so called Hindus who have no connection to their roots and still try to term themselves as Dharmic.

We have seen all short of arguments coming out of their mouth you will be amazed by seeing similar arguments dating back to thousands of years . No progress in the field of atheism is made . It is 21st century

Although no book of charvaka philosophy is completely available but there are bits and pieces . Also this philosophy is mentioned in various other books written by our acharyas so that is enough material for a general view .

Degeneracy and YOLO lifestyle

[redacted] As long as you live , live with pleasure

[redacted] 14 [redacted] : [redacted] : 15 , [redacted] 16 There is pleasure in eating meat , Having relationship with women , watching beautiful women

[redacted] || Naturally , lust occurs equally in both men and women , but men protect women from the vision of a man because of jealousy but man is free such orthodox system is cursed)

Our philosophies exist since time unknown so you can't say "that we are following such such people based on some common similarities" . But your neo philosophies they are surely influenced by these avedic people.

Books used for reference:- Barhspatya Sutras and Barahspatya [redacted], TatvaSangrah, Sarva siddhant sangraha of Shankracharya, Naishadhiya charita, [redacted], Prabodh chandroday.

In future, I will provide you the basic refutation of charvaka philosophy . So it will be easy to handle the atheists.
