ok this one is pretty bad omegaverse where alpha shido keeps omega goro around not just for metaverse hits but because shido is one of those alphas who likes to breed their omega and refuses to wear a condom. goro lets his own father knot and impregnate him every few months to keep him happy every two months or so shido will get increasingly irritable and goro will know that he needs “stress relief”… when shido calls him to his office during those times goro doesn’t even ask, just comes in and waits for shido to tell him to take off his clothes shido likes to keep goro on his knot for hours. doesn’t even take his cock out so that he can keep the cum inside goro. the second his knot goes down enough shido just flips goro over and starts fucking him again worst parts are when goro’s omega instincts take over and he slips and begs shido to impregnate him, to fuck him so full of cum that he’s bred full of shido’s children, how much he wants to be shido’s knot warmer and shido loves it that way, even touches goro gently when goro willingly presents himself for shido’s knot, fucks goro face down and never even bothers to check if goro is enjoying it. he’s here to knot goro full of cum until goro is full of his father’s children shido knows that goro knows that shido is his father and that’s part of the reason why he likes it. nothing gets him harder than goro’s visceral shame every time he cums on his own father’s cock and the pregnancy results come back positive it’s also convenient for shido because goro will never carry it to term. goro gets rid of the child every time. shido gets to knot and knock up a hot young omega every couple of months and never has to deal with the repercussions

many apologies for this one
