

Twitter Thread by Buck Frexit! ■■■■■■ #FBPE #ElectoralReform

Buck Frexit! ■■■■■■ #FBPE #ElectoralReform

@Beany_1

Project fear - a media friendly term which at one stroke, mocked the expertise of those at many of the coal faces of Brexit and dismissed it with a sneer. Yet, just 9 days in, it looks very much like project fear predictions were true and should have been heeded.

Thread

Project fear was not a myth. It was the truth.

Brexit: Michael Gove warns of 'significant disruption' at border as effects of trade change begin to be felt

A freight firm warns drivers that vehicles are being held up or turned away from Dover in Kent and Calais and Dunkirk in France.

Aubrey Allegretti

Political reporter @breeallegretti

🕒 Friday 8 January 2021 17:01, UK

BREXIT

Project fear was not a myth. It was the truth.

EU share trading flees London on first day after full Brexit

Nearly €6bn of dealing rerouted to newly created
European hubs and primary exchanges

For decades, London-based trading systems and big investment banks have been at the heart of cross-border share trading © REUTERS

Project fear was not a myth. It was the truth.

Mother fears son could die as Brexit stops medical cannabis supply

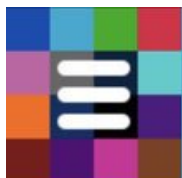

Government gives two weeks notice that access to epilepsy treatment for nine-year-old Alfie Dingley will end

▲ Alfie Dingley, pictured with his mother Hannah Deacon, is one of around 40 children facing loss of access to Bedrolite oil produced in the Netherlands. Photograph: Claire Carroll Photography

Lisa O'Carroll Brexit correspondent

Project fear was not a myth. It was the truth.

British companies GIVE UP on cross-Channel trade because of Brexit red tape: Firms rethink how they operate after UK-EU deal leaves them facing increased costs and paperwork

By Amie Gordon For Mailonline

08:49 07 Jan 2021, updated 18:35 07 Jan 2021

Project fear was not a myth. It was the truth.

Project fear was not a myth. It was the truth.

1

Tweet

Arlene Foster #WeWillMeetAgain

@DUPleader

...

Hauliers have highlighted a number of significant issues with the Protocol. I have conveyed these and other issues and the importance of prompt action to Michael Gove earlier this evening. We opposed the NIP and warned of these consequences.

19:57 · 07/01/2021 · Twitter for iPhone

224 Retweets

155 Quote Tweets

639 Likes

Shame on the politicians & media who, because they wanted to stick two fingers up to the EU and filled with hubris & exceptionalism, dismissed the valid concerns of industries & experts, whose jobs involve the kind of detail this government so happily glosses over on every issue.

Oh, how could I forget this. Also forewarned as being part of the Tory plan behind Brexit, now we see they aren't even pretending it wasn't their aim all along.

Scrap EU consumer and worker protections now Brexit is completed, leading Tory says

Safeguards over data, pay and conditions, GM foods, hedge funds and disposal of old vehicles should all be binned, Daniel Hannan says

Remember Gove assuring us that once we had left the EU we would INCREASE agriculture and animal welfare standards?

Yep, it was yet more “keep ‘em sweet until it’s signed” bollocks

<https://t.co/T26mrTdUd0>