The ■ Most Important Money Lessons

I Wish I Could Teach My Younger Self ■

1■ ALWAYS live below your means

2■ Developing a long-term mindset is the foundation of financial success

3■ In the beginning, your savings rate is all that matters

Eventually, your investing returns are all that matters

Focus your time accordingly

4■ Financial freedom is achievable

The price is ~10 years of hardcore saving/investing

5■ Wealth is built in your free time at home

not at work

6■ If you learn how to convert your salary into wealth

you'll become financially unstoppable

Turn Salary

Into Wealth

 @brianferoldi

7 ■ There will never be a "perfect" time to invest

Just buy regularly and ignore all forecasts, declines, and news headlines

Dollar Cost Averaging

 @brianferoldi

8 ■ In the short-term, sentiment controls stock prices

In the long-term, earnings control stock prices

What moves the market

9 ■ Don't worry about your short-term results

If You Don't Need The Money For Decades

It Makes No Sense To Judge Your Performance Daily

🐦 @brianferoldi

■ Remember to have as much fun as possible on the journey

Don't take yourself too seriously

Make friends. Play games. Travel. Connect with your community!

If you don't enjoy the journey, you won't enjoy the end result

If You're Not Happy While You're Building Wealth

You Won't Be Happy When You Have Wealth
