1/

Get a cup of coffee.

In this thread, I'll show you how to read and understand a company's Balance Sheet.

As investors, we should be able to judge businesses by looking at their financial statements.

And the Balance Sheet, of course, is 1 of 3 key financial statements: pic.twitter.com/6D0HA0vmEN

What: Profit vs cash flow

Tweet:

<https://t.co/nD8m1sTA73>

Most founders don\u2019t understand the difference between PROFIT and CASH FLOW

Not knowing this difference, could leave your business without cash and push you into bankruptcy

Here are the key differences between PROFIT and CASH FLOW

What: Researching stocks

Tweet:

<https://t.co/LHCMo1HHKi>

Understanding how to perform research on stocks is a big hurdle for new investors

Being a CPA and working for a Big 4 accounting firm allowed me to familiarize myself with Financial Statements and metrics

Let me help you perform your own research

What: What does "losing money" mean?

Tweet:

<https://t.co/PEfujJiTc4>

Whenever you read or hear the phrase "losing money" you should ask yourself: what does this person mean?

1. GAAP earnings?
2. Cash flow?
3. Unit economics?

The phrase is so unspecific that it should not be used unless money in physical form is lost.<https://t.co/r13Nabl3vd>
