#KeralaTemples ■

Panniyur Sri Varahamurthy Temple is located in Pattambi Taluk of Palakkad District. This is believed to be the first temple in Kerala, where Prathishta was done by Parasurama

Story says that, Parashurama after Creating Kerala was doing Tapasya here. But he was disturbed as the land faced turbulence. Parashurama sought Narada's help, who advised him to pray to Vishnu. Parashurama started praying Maha Vishnu. Finally Maha Vishnu appeared and told to do Prathishta of his Varaha Avatar.

As Earth is saved in Varaha Avatar, this temple is famous to solve land related issues.

Many people conduct Bhoomi puja here, which is very special here. They bring sand from around the temple which is used for pooja and then has to be returned to the same spot ■ from where it was taken.

It is also believed that Perumthachan, the legendary craftsman has abandoned his tools here.

Om Shri Varaha Murthaye Namah
