They also organize FRESHER'S FAIR For STUDENTS AT ASTON UNIVERSITY IN FULL SUPPORT OF AN INDEPENDENT SIKH HOMELAND - KHALISTAN

Though these organizations may not have the support of most of the Sikh population in the UK but they keep on competing among each other to wrest the control of the management of Gurudwaras in the UK.

availability of ready-made venues for various meetings and events and the garb of a charitable organization to carry out their ulterior tasks," said a officer working in a security establishment.

Recently, a former drug peddler Deepa Singh and his sister were charged by the West Midlnads Police Counter Terrorism Unit for alleged fraud offense of donated charitable funds. Deepa Singh alias Kaldip Singh Lehal is the leader of Sikh Youth UK (SYUK). In November 2018, SYUK and Sikh Channel raised funds worth GBP 0.35 million to create a Sikh Mediation and Research Centre (S.M.A.R.T). How these funds were utilized are a matter of investigation.

January 2020, the Charity Commission started an inquiry into the financial management of Sikh Channel and Philip Watts and Sarah Tomlinson of Anthony Collins Solicitors were appointed as interim managers of the charity on March 19. As per the Charity Commission UK, the two Interim managers are appointed to take over the running of a charity where the Commission has identified misconduct and mismanagement.

Another Sikh TV channel KTV Global is seen actively promoting the Khalistani cause in the UK, One inquisitive check into the records of the channel, shows that it was dissolved by a compulsory strike off Gazette Notice

March 31st, as the company had failed to file financial returns since 2018. Its sole Director Jasbir Mandair, is also an active director of Khalsa Television Ltd., a dormant company, but has wife of Amrick Singh Gill, the Chairman of Sikh Federation UK as one of its Directors.

Amrick Singh Gill and SFUK are also leading another legal battle over Sikhs to be identified as a separate ethnic group.

the organization claims that Sikhs are of different ethnicity from Indians, which includes Punjabi Hindus.

Dabinderjit Singh, the spokesperson of SFUK has in a media interview claimed that expenditure will be atleast GBP 1 million and one gurudwara has agreed to bear the whole cost to support khalistan movement raised in India recently.

This is just a single thread exposing 1 organization but they links and connection with Open Society FOUNDATION and other Anti National NGo will be exposed soon.

Let's Share this thread to maximum people.
