Thiruvallam Sree Parasurama Temple is the only temple in Kerala, with Parashurama Prathishta Temple is located near the banks of Karamana river. Trimoorthy's Bhrahma, Vishnu and Paramashiva are ■ worshipped here in different sannidhi. Separate Dwajasthambam is there for both Shiva and Parashurama Sannidhi.

Temple was built by Vilwamangalam Swamy, a great devotee of Maha Vishnu.

When Vilwamangalam Swamy was travelling through this way, he felt the presence of Parashurama

And thus Prathishta was done here. Chaturbahu Vigraham has Mazhu( Parashurama's weapon) instead of Mahavishnu's Lotus.
 Bali Tarpanam ritual which is performed for the ancestors are famous here.

It is said that Adi Shankaracharya performed his mother's Tarpanam here. By doing Tarpanam here departed souls attains Moksham.
