Urakam Ammathiruvadi Temple

Thrissur, Kerala

#KeralaTemples ■

Urakam Ammathiruvadi Kshetram is one among 108 Durga temples.

Story says that, Pumully Namboodiri also called Thiruvalayannur Bhattadiri, went to worship Kanchi Kamakshi Devi. It is said that, pleased with his■

Bhakthi, Devi came to Urakam with him in his Umbrella. That night Devi came in his dreams and asked to do her Prathishta here. She also told Namboodiri that he will find a Vigramam in a well nearby. Thus Prathishta was done here. Temple site was previously Namboodiri's illam.

It is said that Sri Rama worshipped here before war with Ravana.

Urakam Ammathiruvadi temple is main participant in Arattuppuzha pooram. During pooram Urakathamma will be in the left and Cherpu Bhaghavathy will be in right of Triprayar Sri Rama.
