BAIT AND SWITCH

The greatest trick of women past 29

When she is not married at this point unpleasant women take on a role that they despise most... A SUBMISSIVE WOMAN

Thread

The epiphany

After going through a "hoe phase" through out their twenties
They shortly come to a realization that they infact do need a man to settle with but their unpleasant attitude makes it difficult for anyman to want to be with them

The BAIT

Their narssistic world view never made them realize how shity their personality is.. so this come as a painful shock that no man wants to be with them long term

After accepting this they then look for exactly what a man wants in a woman and embody those traits

Whatever the type of woman he wants she will be exactly just that.. Showing huge interest in all his hobbies, type of humor Everything

She will do as he says

She won't start petty arguments

And She will give him the best sex of his life

He will then realise how "unique she is" and put a ring on it because Wow this is the best woman he ever met in his life they don't make them like this anymore■

Clouded by pussy man will go as far as marrying in community of property with no prenup to top it all off■■■■■

The SWITCH

When she finally secures Mr Simpson.. She has absolutely no reason to continue doing all the things she was doing to get him, after all it was all an act to get him and now that she did she can revert back to her natural self

And all of a sudden she rather watch reality shows than soccer with him ■
She starts nagging and being disrespectful
She refuses to submit like how she used to Sex becomes less and less frequent

Man is left confused and miserable thinking his wife changed on him But

She didn't change, she was always like this he failed to realize just how dangerous it is dating women that gave all their best years to men she was attracted to and settled with him towards the end of her millage

He wasn't aware how ruthless female nature can be

And with no prenup and married under community of property he rather choose to stay with her and he miserable than lose all his shit..

This is what millions of men right now are going through

All because they fell for the classic Bait and Switch
