A Thread

Orbiters exist solely for the purpose of keeping her entertained when she's bored and giving her validation when her self esteem is low

And not in her wildest dreams does she think of fucking let along dating these guys

They are just there because she wants their attention

Not even aware that they are getting played, beta male orbiters will go lengths to try and prove themselves worthy of being "a part of her life"

Flooding her with heart reacts.. Comments and Double texts.. Their free attention knows no limits

When she posts I'm bored
These are they guys who run to her Dm
When She wants a Vcall.. These are the guys who immediately jump at the opportunity

With Everything she posts best believe there's a beta male orbiter waiting to respond like a sniper on the roof

All women know this, and no matter how annoying he might be they still keep him around because they love the attention..

They love having niggas who are so desperate that they drop whatever they are doing just so they can serve her

Beta Male Orbiters never realise that everythjng they are doing are the very reasons she will never fuck them

They are:
Always Available

Always Complimenting her
Always Agreeing with the dumb shit she says

They lack a basic understanding of attraction

They don't have a single thought in their head to cut their losses because it's obviously never gonna happen

They just keep going thinking one of these days she's gonna realise what a good guy he is Lol.

The only good thing about Orbiters is that if you are intimate with her they keep her entertained while you chase your purpose

Beta Male Orbiters listen to her problems hoping to get closer to sex and she always goes and fucks the nigga who couldn't care less.
