India's biggest SCAM done by Congress with the help of a Pakistani.

In 1992, popular US company Enron made an agreement with Indian Govt & Maharashtra Govt to open a power project in Maharashtra's Ratnagiri district's Dhabol.

But this project was dumped because of the strong opposition from the locals. Angered with this, Enron filed a case against Indian Govt in International Court of Justice to pay the losses it incurred!

The then BJP govt led by Vajpayee Ji appointed popular Advocate Harish Salve to lead India at ICJ.

But what was surprising is that P Chidambaram, who was an Indian citizen and a lawyer by profession, agreed to fight against India by joining hands with Enron. @nsbchd

Unfortunately, Vajpayee ji lost in 2004 & Sonia Gandhi led Congress Govt came to power.

Manmohan Singh became PM & Chidambaram was the finance minister. At this position, it was impossible for Chidambaram to fight for Enron. @SoniaGurnani19 @AjayPandey @narendramodi177

Yet he was Enron's legal advisor. What happened next was unimaginable & beyond shocking!

Finance Minister Chidambaram misused his powers & removed patriot advocate Salve, who was appointed by Vajpayee Govt.

He was replaced by Pakistani origin lawyer Khawar Qureshi. We needed a Pakistani to fight for <https://t.co/M7wqnUkLMd> was like telling a cow slaughterer to save cows.

Upon that, Rs 1400 crore service charge was also provided.

That means, India spent Rs 1400 just to lose. (Harish Salve ji had received just Rs 1 to defeat the same Khawar Qureshi at ICJ in Kulbhushan Jadhav case) India would have won this case easily.

But as a result of handing it to Pak lawyer, India lost it in just 12 months of Qureshi taking charge.

And also, India had to give Rs 38,000 crores to Enron company as compensation.

This never made it to news. Because the then Prime Minister Manmohan Singh was taking media personnel along with him, wherever he went.

Journalists were given expensive drinks, gifts, entertainment etc.

Also, Padma awards were also given to these sold-out journalists. All this took place under the leadership of world renowned economist & a cunning finance minister.

Now you can guess the names of corrupt politicians who got a share from that Rs 38,000 crores.

Chidambara Rahasya!

These traitors made money by looting India!
