

Twitter Thread by sriram

sriram

@SriramKannan77

Exotic Aniruddha Saligrama:

Aniruddha is the son of Pradyumna and the Grandson of Lord Sri Krishna. Lord Aniruddha's eternal consort, Usha, requested him in the palace of her father, Bana, where Aniruddha was captured & had to be rescued by Krishna, Balarama, and the Yadava army.

Aniruddha Saligrama

He appears as the Ruler of intelligence.

The Shila has beautiful impressions of Anirudhha on the front of the Shila in the form of layers pointing at one end symbolizing focus and compassion.

It is believed that the worshiper of this Shaligram is always governed by his wit, wisdom, and conviction.

Very good for students for memory retention & concentration.

People who are decision-makers are greatly benefited by the worship of this Shila. It also provides a Vaikuntha like atmosphere & improves tremendously the relationships in the house & at the workplace of the beholder.

The actions of the devotee of Aniruddha Shaligram is always governed by his mind and not by his heart.

The worshiper commands great respect in the society being a learned man and enjoys all the worldly comforts.

It is also a belief that offering daily pooja to this Salagrama is extremely good for the builders, architects, administrators, and politicians.

Jai Shriman Narayana!