VIJAYA EKADASHI: TODAY

The Ekadashi Tithi of Phalguna, Krishna Paksha is called Vijaya Ekadashi.

Vijaya Ekadashi is the day that symbolises victory. Those who wish to attain success in some work observe this vrat and seek Sri Vishnu's blessings.

When Sri Rama got to know where Ravana had taken Ma Sita, he decided to attack Lanka. However, the vast ocean in front of him made his task difficult. It was then suggested to him to go to Rishi Bhakad Albhya. The great Rishi suggested the Ekadashi Vrat to Sri Ram.

Sri Rama did the Ekadashi vrat, as suggested and was able to overcome all obstacles.

Similarly, anyone who observes the Vijaya Ekadashi vrata with devotion, attains glory and the eternal blessings of Sri Hari Vishnu.

Devotees worship Sri Vishnu on this day and observe fast. Reading Vishnu Sahasranama is considered as highly auspicious. It is prohibited to consume any sort of grains, pulses, and rice on this day.
