A thread

After 10 yrs of being in opposition and failure to bring down the UPA govt, RSS & it's political outfit BJP had 2 come up wid a plan to propel anti incumbency towards UPA and make it all seem like a revolution which was ignited by the masses

In came, Anna hazare and Kejriwal with their India against corruption movement (IAC).

AAP’s co-founder and ex-member, Prashant Bhushan admitted that Kejriwal and RSS BJP had propped up the movement.

The trick worked, and in no time Kejriwal would also go on to set up a political party called AAP which would ask for votes on development issues while BJP RSS would continue garnering votes through communal polarization

Surprisingly, Kejriwal formed a 50 day govt in Delhi Assembly along with the same party which he so vociferously opposed during IAC - Congress.

Soon, AAP would go on to form a government on their own without Congress support.

Fast forward to Jan 2020 before elections for the Delhi Assembly.

During the anti CAA NRC protest, AAP maintained a nuetral stance in order to now rile up the maj0rity voters.

Kejriwal went on to say in an interview that he "could have cleared Shaheen Bagh in 2 hours", pushing HM to clear Shaheen Bagh as it was "causing inconvenience" according to Kejriwal.

Furthering his H!ndu appeasement strategy included Temple Visits during the election campaign, while the city was already split into two fractions due to the communal polarization caused by BJP.

Even when the NE Delhi P0grom against Musl!ms took place, AAP had a tacit silence and blamed everything on Central Govt.

They did not even shy away 4m pushing one of their own (as they consider) Tahir Hussain under the bus, who was merely protecting his building.

Kejriwal celebrated his victory with the below statement, as if mocking his Musl!m voters and reassuring H!ndus that they had a H!ndu leader at the front wheel.

This was also a factor which bolstered the RW H!ndu radicals during NE Delhi Pogrom

AAP and Kejriwal's stand on Ram Mandir has been no different from the other political parties. He recently announced free pilgrimage for old citizens to Ram Mandir (which is built over the demolished Babri Masjid)

Here is his close aide, Manish Sisodia, unapologetically chanting "JAi Shri Ram" during election campaign in Gujrat. A slogan which has become ubiquitous amongst people who k!ll Musl!ms for c0w.

It should also be noted that AAP had supported abrogation of article 370, which aimed at stripp!ng J&K of it's basic rights and furthering the oppression of Musl!ms in Kashmir.

Over the years, specially in the past 2, Kejriwal and AAP have made it clear that H!ndu appeasement is what they are after in order to stay in power, even if it comes at the cost of 100s of Musl!m lives.

The onus is now on Musl!ms to completely disown such false crusaders.

END.
