Thrissilery Shiva Kshetram, located in Wayanad district is one among 108 Shiva temples of Kerala. Situated near Thirunelli Mahavishnu Kshetram, it is believed that the Tarpanam offered at Thirunelli will not be fulfilled unless worshipped here.

It is believed that Bhagwan's Shirassu(head)is at Thrissilery and Kaalpadam(leg)is at Thirunelli Kshetram. Only after offering Neivilakku one should proceed to Thirunelli Kshetram.

There is a sannidhi for Jala Durga inside the temple which is one among 108 durgalayas. It is believed that the water around Jaladurga is connected to the Papanashini river at Thirunelli Kshetram. Kshetram Kulam is Rudrateertham and Ganesha is seen guarding here as it is believed that treasures are hidden inside the well.

Om Namah Shivaye
