Twitter Thread by JAGADEESVARRAJ

JAGADEESVARRAJ
@JAGADEESVARRAJ

The thread about Lord Venkateshwara Perumal who borrowed money from Kuberan.

Lord borrowed money for his marriage with Maa Padmavati. The loan amount was about 1.4 Millions in Ramamudra coins.

The loan was given under the condition that the borrower must make an own promissory note all by himself.

This is the promissory note. The words in this note are dictated by Lord Brahma and Lord Venkateshwara wrote this by himself.

Following is the meaning of the text in promissory note : -

" This, the 7th day of the bright-fortnight of the month of Vyshaka in Kali Yug. The debtor is Lord Srinivasa, the creditor is Dhaneshwara. Purpose : Marriage of the loanee.

Amount of Loan fourteen lakhs in Ramamudra coins. The loanee should repay it with interest in one thousand years after the loanee's marriage."

Here, this one thousand years is mentioned in Deva Loka time and not in Bhuloka time.

Lord Brahma and Lord Shiva attested this note.

After accepting this note, Kubera paid the amount in Ramamudra coins.

Also, Lord Srinivasa requested Kubera to purchase and get all the articles and material required for the marriage.

The Materials are rice, wheat, pulses, clothes, flowers, things required for rituals, and mainly the Auspicious Mangalya Thread. Kubera bought all the things and gave this to The Lord.

This Auspicious Marriage was witnessed by all the living forms.

GOVINDA GOVINDA GOVINDA ■■