#Thread on mamta banerjee: The uncrowned dictator.

mamta banerjee who made several headlines in 2005 by throwing papers on the speaker of parliament over the issue of ilegal immigrant, who knew then 14 years after she will have a completely different stand on illegal immigrant.

But, why I'm calling her an uncrowned dictator? Following are the reasons-

1. She swings for power & not for the ideology- she started her career with congress in 1970. Then, she aligned with bjp in 1999 and became railway minister, then; she again aligned with congress for the state election in 2001. Then again she returned to bjp in 2003 and became coal minister in 2004. Then again she joined UPA in 2009 for the parliamentary election. Clear she has no ideology; she is hungry for power just like a dictator.

2. Media is being gagged up- The first thing that every dictator do is gagging up the media. The editor of Anandabazar Patrika, the highly respected and largest-circulated Bangla newspaper, has resigned, with the news emerging four days afterdidi accused the 98-year-old daily of

In at least two recent incidents, the West Bengal government has allegedly curtailed press freedom after media organisations had reportedly put out reports against the state government. The recent resignation of Anirban Chattopadhyay, editor of Anandabazar Patrika, the largest circulated Bengali daily in the state, is believed to have come after the government “pressurised” the group to ensure the editor’s exit from the organisation. The newspaper had been recently putting out a series of reports highlighting the failure of the West Bengal government in handling the coronavirus and Cyclone Amphan crises in the state and this is what did not go down well with the Bengal government.

The Anandabazar Patrika had received legal notice from the West Bengal government, allegedly over their “negative reporting about the state government” in the last month.

Even Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee had lashed out at the ABP group during a press conference at the State Secretariat, Nabbana, on 27 May.

In her attack against the ABP group, Banerjee said, “The role of some media organisations in the state has been terrible and I am sorry to say this that the ABP owned newspaper is the worst in this. Your paper did not give time to the state government to respond to the crisis and immediately started maligning the government. You have done unthinkable damage to the state’s showing the state govt. in bad light and the editor was summoned by Kolkata Police for allegedly publishing fake news. There are many such incident which shows that media in bangal is under complete control.

3. KIllng the innocents under the fear of losing out- In a string operation done by republic media network, former TMC leader madan mitra confesses that on the orders of mamta banerjee 150 people were killed as she feared to losing out the panchayati election.

These kind of work had been done by gaddafi or sadam husain etc.

4. Didi has total control on the police- Every dictator need an army. Mamta banerjee has built her army in the form of police, May be this is the reason she keeps home ministry along with the chief minister post.

Remember, how commissioner of police was disappeared when CBI went to investigate him over several corruption charges, CBI officers were detained by the kolkata police, making the clear statement that no one can enter in bangal for investigation without the permission of didi.

They were let off after around two hours of questioning. Meanwhile, Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee has started a protest against the CBI's action.

5. over possessive for her image- Every dictator including kim jong un has been over conscious for their image. Remember the time when proyanka sharma was arrested for making a meme on didi?

A complaint was made against a woman who had allegedly shared a morphed picture of Mamata Banerjee in Howrah. The woman is named Priyanka Sharma and is apparently the convenor of BJYM in Howrah district. She was arrested and produced in Howrah Court.

6. Running the construction mafia- According to the report of India today, one cannot do any kind of construction work in kolkata without the permission of shibu islam. He is the vice-president of TMC's north unit. All the dictators around the globe do such things.

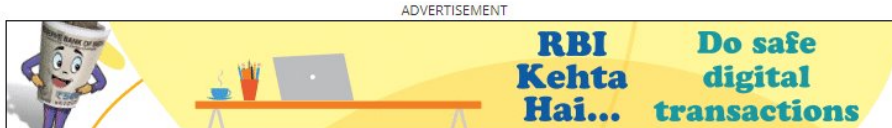

7. TMC is full of smugglers- All dictators were/are alternatively a smuggler to manage their funds and economy. According to ED, vinay mishra who is believed to be a close associate of didi's nephew Abhishek Banerjee, has received more than 730 crores for coal smuggling.
