Laurence W. Britt wrote about the common signs of fascism in April, 2003, after researching seven fascist regimes. These were Adolph Hitler's Nazi Germany, Benito Mussolini's Italy, Francisco Franco's Spain, Antonio de Oliveira Salazar's Portugal, George Papadopoulos's Greece, Augusto Pinochet's Chile, Mohamed Suharto's Indonesia. These signs resonate with the political and economic direction of the United States under Bush/Cheney. Get involved in reversing this anti-democratic direction while you still can!
