Varadharaja Perumal Koil

#Kanchipuram

#TamilNaduTemples ■

Varadharaja Temple located in Kanchipuram, is one among 108 Divya Deshams.
Moolavar is Varadharajar perumal and Thayar Perundevi.

Sthala Puranam says that Brahma Deva started performing Yagam without Saraswathi Devi

When Saraswathi Devi knew about this yaga, she got angry and rushed to Yaga sthala in the form of a river, which is Vegavathi river. Brahma Deva, afraid of this seek Mahavishnu's help, requesting to save him. Thus Mahavishnu lied down across the river to stop its flow.

Saraswathi Devi did not have strength to cross Sriman Narayana and she entered earth. Thus Varadarajar appeared from Yaga Agni. It is also believed that Narada Muni, Adishesha and Gajendra worshipped Mahavishnu here. Another story is of disciples of Gautama Muni who were cursed to become lizards. Later they were relieved from the curse by praying here to Mahavishnu. Those who worship Varadarajar attain family welfare and prosperity and success in all fields.
