

Rama and Lakshmana have the ability to adapt themselves to the surroundings. As they come from the royal lineage, the ability to display their strong character is noticed by King Janaka. 5

After he welcomed the rishi, he observed the the brothers as they walked majestically into the yajna sala.

His observations were -

- 1) The brothers strode like audacious elephants and arrogant lions,
- 2) bearing a similitude to adventurous tigers and adamantine bulls, 6
- 3) wielding quivers, swords, and bows, are valorous with their valour matching that of Vishnu,
- 4) They had broad lotus-like eyes,
- 5) Youthfulness in the offing
- 6) matching Ashwini kumArAs by their physique.
- 7) He wondered if the devAs chanced on earth at their pleasure. 7
- 8) Finally, he requested the Rishi to explain their purpose of visit and whose scions they belonged to?

People get attracted when Bhagawan incarnates as human as can be seen from here and also in Krishna avatar.

Jai Sriram.
