#Palakkad

#KeralaTemples ■

Thiruvegappura Kshetram is located at Ottapalam of Palakkad district. Temple is on the banks of Thutha Puzha. Eventhough this is Shiva Kshetram, Shri Krishna & Sankaranarayanan are also worshipped with equal importance

Sthala Puranam says that, Shivalingam of Thiruvegappura Mahadeva Kshetram was brought from Himalayas by Garuda Deva. The Muhurtham for doing Prathista of Shivalingam was nearing when Garuda was bringing the Shivalingam. So, Garuda flew fast to reach on time (Vegam Parakuka).

It is also said that Paramashiva asked Garuda to fly fast (Vegam Parakkanam) and thus, the temple got the name Thiru Vegam Para, which later became Thiruvegappura. Thiruvegappura Mahadeva Temple is also known as Moonnumoorthy temple(temple with 3 Devas)

Three separate sree kovils for three Vighrams, with separate Kodi Maram is very unique here. Vaikkathashtami and Sivarathri is celebrated with equal importance.
