Margabandheeshwarar Temple is located at

Virinjipuram village in Vellore District. Paramashiva is Swayambhu here and worshipped as Margabandheeshwarar, Parvati Devi as Maragathambigai.

Sthala Puranam is related to Bhrama Deva, who once told a lie. Bhrama couldn't see head of Paramashiva in Thiruvannamalai. Unwilling to accept the truth he took a flower which fell from head of Mahadeva to prove that head is visible by this way. Bhrama Deva was cursed due to this

Bhrama Deva was born as Shiva Sharma a priest's son. Shiva Sharma started doing pooja after his father's death. He did Shiva Pooja at very young age
But while doing Abhishekham he could not touch Shivalingam because of it's height. Paramashiva bend down before the child.

The place got its name Virinchipuram because Brahma Deva, is also called Virinchi. By worshipping here, obstacles relating to marriage are removed. Temple is also important for Surya Sthala as sun's rays fall on the Shivalingam during (March April
