

Twitter Thread by Varsha Singh

Varsha Singh

@varshaparmar6

Shrikshetra Kalaram Temple is located at Nashik, Maharashtra dedicated to prabhu Ram

The 3 idols of prabhu Ram, Laxman and Sita in the temple are "Swayambhu" & d deity is called "Shri Kalaram" as they are sandy & dark in color

Blessed to have visited the place.

It is said that Sri Prabhu Ramchandra lived in this area for about two and a half years after ten years of exile. The main entrance has a Lord Hanuman deity which is black. There is also a very old tree that has Lord Dattatreya's footprint impressions marked on a stone.

Lord Hanuman's temple is designed in such a way that, Lord Ram's idol can be visible from his idol. Main temple has 14 steps, which represents 14 yrs of Ram's exile.

Also d temple has 84 pillars, which represents cycle of 84 lakh species one has to go in order to get Human birth