

Twitter Thread by Kumar Sarangapani

Kumar Sarangapani

@KumarSarangapa1

Deivathin Kural Vol 2 Pg 856

Marriage is for practice of Dharma only:

It is not possible for all to become Sanyasi in this world .The sastras extol

Grahashthashramam as the backbone of the society since they are expected to live as per Dharma and fulfill the needs of the 1/brahmachari and Sanyasi. After completing Once brahmacharyam by acquiring and learning good qualities one must marry to perform karm anushtanams. Marriage is included among the Forty samskaras meaning it is also a sacred rite in purifying the Jivan. Just as upanayanam is 2/4 preliminary step in brahmacharyam, marriage is a preliminary step in Grahasthashramam in disciplining the senses and the basis for performing various dharmic duties. Not only practicing worldly matters as per the Dharma, the sastras of grahasthasramam is done in such a 3/that desire of kama is also fulfilled as per Dharma. Dharma means not exceeding anything but controlling it as per the limit is'not? Same way controlling once sensual pleasure and fulfilling once desire through marriage is known as practicing Dharma in kama. 4/4