Kalighat Kali Temple is located at Kolkata, West Bengal.
The Goddess is worshipped here as Kalika and the Lord as Nakuleshwar Bhairav.
It is in 51 shakti peethas.
It is believed that the right big toe of Sati fell here at Kalighat.

The image of Kali in this temple is unique.The three huge eyes, long protruding tongue and four hands all are made of gold. Two of these hands holding a scimitar and a severed head of the asura king 'Shumbha'. The other two hands are in the abhaya and varada mudras (blessings)
