Shivpuri Dham is one of the ancient and most unique temple in Kota, Rajasthan. It has as many as 525 Shivalingas at one place. The place is thronged by pilgrims and devotees all through the year; however, the busiest time of the year is Shivratri or Rasleela.

Between the Shivalingas, there is a huge statue of God Pashupati Nath. The speciality of this temple is that the 525 Shivalingas are placed in the Swastika Formation. The bird eye view gives the perfect picture of Swastika. There is also a 14 Ton and 11 ft long Sahastra Shivalinga.

Shivpuri Dham is famous countrywide for its 525 Shivalingas. Every year lakhs of devotees visit this shrine and pilgrimage. If you go to Rajasthan, the Shivpuri Dham of Kota is a must visit.
