Kolaru Pathigam-Thevaram hymn composed by ThiruGnana Sambandar- #Thread

In Tamil Kol means planets,Aru means cut- set of songs in Kolaru Pathigam addresses all Navagrahas& last 2 lines of every song with end a plea to Bhagwan Shiva to reduce/erase the ill effects of Navagrahas

■■■■■ ■■■■■■ - This pathigam was sung by Thirugnana Sambandar at Thirumaraikadu Kshetram
-Vedaranyam,Tamilnadu

Thirugnana Sambandar & Appar(Thirunavukkarasar) travelled together to various Shiva Alayam to spread shivam & bhakti among people.They both reached Thirumaraikadu.

Appar & Sambandar were asked to enter the temple through side entrance. The main door was locked by Vedas many years ago. Appar & Sambandar sang devotional hymns praising Shiva, after which the gates opened & closed. After which main door opened for all.

Sambandar agreed and was about to start with Kularchirai Nayanar. Appar himself has been persecuted by the Samanars in the past. He felt that Sambandar being a very young boy, samanars might harm him physically. Further, he told Sambandar astrologically, it is not right time to travel.

Kolaru Pathigam- first song

There are 10 more verses. The significance is that those who chant it or those who listen to it will find that all the evils eventually turn to good. This is what is reiterated again and again in the verses.

Do chant or listen. Om Namah Shivaya ■
