Yes, I am intolerant to anyone who maligns my Prime Minister @narendramodi

You called him names, made false cases. Crucified him.

Your media barked at him like rabid dogs.

19 long years.

Supreme leader of the state for 7 years. Yet, he didn't cause the slightest harm to you.

No human can show such patience, tolerance and forgiveness this man has shown you

At the end of a tired day, if one person at work criticised you, called you names, will you smile and go on without a let up?

The man has not taken a break the last 19 years. What human does that?

Yet, your greed for money and power is so great that you really don't see who you are hurting.

Well, take it from me - you are not hurting him. He is above all that. You are hurting the dharmic conscience of our country.

He forgives. Dharma does not. Karma does not.

Beware.
