Don McGahn, Trump ex-WH counsel, to testify behind closed doors about Trump's efforts to obstruct the Russia investigation

Full story:

This McGahn testimony agreement looks a little like another subpoena stand-off: over Jim Comey's testimony in 2018

Not-so-ancient history but feels like eons ago

Also in history: Mueller found all he needed to charge Trump with obstruction. Then left decisions to Barr, Congress.

755 days later, McGahn can repeat to the House what he told Mueller.

I wrote this Apr 18 2019, the day the Mueller report was released:
