

Twitter Thread by Seth Cotlar

Seth Cotlar

@SethCotlar

I seem to recall a story from a while back that revealed that Ginni Thomas met weekly with a group of right wing operatives that included the Project Veritas hoax artist.

Project Veritas assigned female undercover operatives to arrange dates with FBI employees and other officials and secretly record them, with the aim of capturing any disparaging comments made about Trump. The women had code names like \u201cBrazil\u201d and \u201cTiger.\u201d <https://t.co/N7Yrjx5M5U>

— The New York Times (@nytimes) May 13, 2021

Oh hey. <https://t.co/TMkQSyPH6V>

Gosh, look at that. <https://t.co/yHfRDhNJED>

It's all just so absurd, and yet so potent.

Here's Anna Khait speaking at a pro-Trump, pro-steal the election rally last December. <https://t.co/HY8uKIj4jV>

This is why the founders separated church and state. <pic.twitter.com/xJj9kjHyz2>

— Seth Cotlar (@SethCotlar) December 12, 2020