Shri Sita Ji's poojan and satsang on the holy day of her divine incarnation. Sita Navami is celebrated on the ninth day of shukla paksha of Vaishaka month every year, today is day when Mata Sita was born.

Janak putri devi Sita, who was the incarnation of Goddess Lakshmi, has had proved that having strong and sincere love towards one is the ultimate.

Devi's life has established a set of rules for today's women, her dedication towards Bhagwan Ram, her sacrifices towards state, her life of independence, her efforts, love and affection towards her children is what we seek.

A strange truth is that #Ram_Navami is celebrated by everyone and Sita Navami is forgotten. Ram Navami's greetings will be given to you by every leader, media house but none would wish on Sita Navami.

On the occasion of Goddess Sita Navami, Team TCV wishes you and your family happiness and harmony.
