Personalizing the first line of every cold email will 10x replies.

But what's a good first line look like?

And what's a bad one look like?

Here's how to personalize correctly.

THREAD

Here's an agency owner.

"Hey Chris, love your book! There's some awesome ideas in there."

"Hey Chris, loved your last podcast episode!"

About

I am the CEO and Founder of The Go! Agency: a full service sales and marketing company focused on helping you grow your business, and visibility, online. What sets our agency apart from our competition is our distinctively client-focused approach. Our team of designers, digital marketers, account managers, writers and support staff work together to deliver cutting-edge social media marketing campaigns, website design, graphic design, custom written blogs, eye-catching articles and press releases, email marketing campaigns, blog site design, and much more.

I am also the author of "The Go Method: 22 Simple Steps to Creating a Social Media Strategy That Works!". It can be purchased through my publishers website here: <http://tinyurl.com/TheGoMethod>

With this point in mind, I am passionate about helping other professionals make sense of the online landscape and am asked to speak at national and international conferences on a regular basis (sharing the dais with companies such as Google and YouTube in cities around the world such as London, NYC, Brussels, Washington DC and more).

Also I am the host of the highly popular webcast "The Social Marketing Academy" which you can find in the iTunes store. Subscribe today!

Please reach out to my team directly at info@thegoagencyusa.com or call us toll free at 866-926-2636.

The Go! Agency has been invaluable. They understand our brand and have given my ideas new life in a social media obsessed world.

- Al Ries, International Best-Selling Author and World-Renowned Speaker

Our company has used The Go! Agency for almost a year now to manage the social media accounts for many of our communities. Thanks to their expertise and social media marketing savvy, we have seen dramatic increases in viewer interaction for our communities pages. The Go! Agency really understands the world of social media and how to best use it to get interaction and responses from our target audience. We would highly recommend them to other companies who need to establish or increase their social media presence.

- Clint Dockery, Senior Management Advisors

“

We wanted to enhance our online presence so we turned to The Go! Agency. They did that and so much more. We started out with Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and Google+. When we were looking for growth and SEO enhancement, they suggested a blog. They make it easy to grow your online presence, and since they are experts in the industry, they keep up on trends and technological advances, so you can concentrate on running your business.

- Tony Mira, President and CEO, Anesthesia Business Consultants

The Go! Agency has done a wonderful job of bringing our non-profit agency into the 21st century! We had no experience with social media prior to their involvement with us and had little time to learn the 'tricks of the trade.' We loved the convenience and timeliness of their social media content which was specially designed for us on a weekly basis. Although we don't 'sell' any product or service, we were delighted by the increased awareness and exposure of our agency to a wider audience than we ever had before. This company is extremely easy to work with and so very responsive our agency's needs. It was money well spent.

- Helen King, Area Agency on Aging

"Hey Chris, loved the Tips story highlight on your Instagram, especially the one about improving you visuals!"

How do you know if your first line is good?

- > It doesn't sound weird if you say it out loud.
- > You couldn't send it to anybody else besides that person
- > It's about something specific. Not "love all the work you're doing!"
