A thread - Does timing your SIPs work?

They work best when you don't try to time and fiddle with them.

Example 1: Stopping SIP and restarting when markets stabilise

Stopped SIP in March

Did this work?

No: 2.93 lk vs 1.93 lk

Missed opportunity - 1 lk (Savings + Returns)

A thread to understand all about State Development Loans (SDLs).

Why you should invest now and how?

1. What is an SDL?

They are market borrowing by various States of India in form of bonds. These bonds are auctioned by the RBI on regular basis in the same manner as G-Sec.

A short thread on making sense from rising US bond yields.

There are broadly 2 occasions when US Bond yields have risen post stimulus.

1. Policy tightening or signals of policy tightening by the US Fed.

2. Strong reversal in growth and rise in inflation expectations.

A thread explaining difference between ETFs and Index Funds.

What are ETFs and Index Funds?

Both are from the same family called passive funds, which mirror the index that they follow.

They both aim to track the performance of the underlying index as close as possible.

A thread on 7 simple personal finance rules.

1. Don't bother to track every penny you spend. You'll lose focus on the big picture.

Instead, focus saving big on those big ticket items. Cut down on large, recurring purchases and then later, if necessary, focus on penny items.
