Call me insensitive, but I feel what's happening in Afghanistan is bcz of Karmic Cycle!

P.S:

Before gvng me gyan,ask those who r supportng Taliban despite knowing all atrocities they r doing to Afghanis, keeping their religious ideology above humanity!

Did u know?
The word Afghanistan is derived from Sanskrit word ■■ ■■ ■■■■■ which means Place Inhabited by Allied Tribes.
Until 900 CE, Afghanistan was ruled by Hindus & Budhdhists. Destruction of Hindu region began as early as 980 CE when Raja Jaya Pal was attacked by Sabuktagin Sabuktagin was the founder of Ghaznavid Dynasty. During the rule of JayaPal,Shiva worship was dominant in all places of Afghanistan.

Great Sanskrit grammarian P■nini & Gandhari (frm Mahabharat) were also from Afghanistan.
Under Kusham & Kidara, Hindu rule extended upto Uzbekistan

Not many know that even today there is a Shiva temple in Tashkent. British Archaeologist, Sir Estine had found numerous Hindu temples, shrines & inscriptions in Afghanistan. He mentioned about a magnificent Sun temple & Ganesha statues in four books written by him.

Bukhara region of Uzbekistan was called as the Shah Vihar ruled by a Hindu King but when Arabs attacked that region, to escape from the atrocities of Arabs,the Queen of Shah Vihar fled to Kashmir & to seek military help. Hindu historian Kalhan anecdotes this fight between Kashmir & Arab Khalifa Mamoon. Meanwhile Arabs had conquered the Bukhara region & made Baghdad as their capital.

Hindus respected all the valiant soldiers & gave Ayurvedic treatment and surgeries, be it the soldiers from Arab army too.
Arabs were so inspired by Ayurveda that they translated Ayurvedic procedures into Arabic.

Even today one can see a very ancient Hindu temple dedicated to Jwala ji at Baku, the capital city of Azerbaijan. Many inscriptions about Shiva & Ganesha can be found on the wall of that temple.

During 7th century Kabul & Gandhar region was ruled by Hindu Shahi dynasty.

The place where the main mosque of Kabul is there was made over a Hindu Temple. The region which is facing the atrocities of Taliban today was ruled by Hindu kings of Khingla dynasty & Kalkaa Brahmins from 660 AD to 850 AD which was later destroyed by Arabs. Raja Jayapala was so helpless by attack, slaughtering & destruction by Ghazni that he committed suicide. Ghazni named the mountains in Afghan as Hindu Kush which means 'Killer of Hindus' to describe the number of Hindus killed by him on his way to Afghanistan.

& how the Budhdha statues of Bamiyan were razed by these M0®0n$ is well known by all.
We all r aware of the repeated attack by Mahmud of Ghazni on Somnath. U can also find the grave of the great Hindu King Prithviraj Chauhan also in Afghanistan being disrespected daily!

There were 100% Hindus in Afghanstan & today jst 50-60 Hindus left there.
Evn aftr knowing dis history of bloodshed & atrocities u call them as 'peacefuls', then d real M0®0n is u!

U will not find dis barbaric history in our school textbooks..so share...
So that the world know!
