Allopanishad is not part of our Upanishads, it was written during the Mughal time when Akhbar ordered a converted brahmin to write Upanishad and name it as "Allopanishad" to show Allāh is great and supremacy of Islām to infidels later this book was used by Gandhi.

Kindly don't fall for such books, and don't promote such books.

There are 20 chapters in Atharva Veda, none of the chapters have the name of Allāh or any trace of Islām.

Allopanishad has both Arabic and Sanskrit words, while our Upanishad is only of the Sanskrit language.

Words like "Asmāllām" "ille" are mentioned in Allopanishad, Which is totally against the grammar Vedas grammar. The book was purposely made to the supremacy of islām. kindly don't promote or support such fraudulently created book.

Gandhiji used the Allopanishad to teach

"All God is same, the only name is different" or "Ishwar Allāh are same"

He had been told by a friend that a prayer with the same meaning was also found in the Yajurveda. Those who had studied the Hindu scriptures knew that among the 108 Upanishads there was one called the Allopanishad. Did not the man who wrote it know his religion? It was said that Guru Nanak himself went to Arabia in search of truth during his religious wanderings.

No religion in the world, Gandhiji continued, could live without self-suffering. A faith gained in strength only when people were willing to lay down their lives for it. The tree of life had to be watered with the blood of martyrs, who had laid down their lives without killing their opponents or intending any harm to them. That was the root of Hinduism and of all other religions.
