Thread Related cyber Security and cyber crime / fraud

From today I have decided that I will share with you some tips and cheap tricks about cyber security and cyber attacks every day. So that you can also be safe and protect your family or friends from such attacks.

I will put a tweet or tweet thread in front of you .. for the next 111 days, so that you can understand how all these incidents can be avoided and any kind of big incident can be avoided with anyone.Because you all must have seen how today we all have entered the virtual world, but due to lack of complete information, most of the people become victims of fraud.I will bring this information to you all through Google or Wikipedia.And if you feel that this point should also be added to this point,then you can feel free to correct me.Every day between 9-10 am I will put a tweet or thread on this campaign. So that all of you can read it and also know its use and disadvantages.U can ask ur questions too.

I will use few Hastgas
