DESCRIPTIONS OF VARIOUS LOKAS LIKE BRAHMA LOKA, VARUN LOKA KUBER LOKA, YAM KA AND VARUN LOKA BY NARAD

After Yudhishtir ascended Indraprasth throne, Narad Muni came to meet Yudhishtir. Narad Ji was welcomed by Yudhishtir by offering his own king chair. Narad Muni then sat with Yudhishtir and instead of plain advice, he opted for question format. He went on questioning Yudhishtir on the each and every intricacies of administration, behaviour, expectations, diplomacy and morality. Some of the points he raised were whether he had sufficient funds to look at each aspect of Security, Dharma, Health and Happiness. Also what is Yudhishtir's behaviour towards his army, his subjects, his court men, his family and opponents. Also was he able to judge people and the mood of the people properly. Also was he aware that who is friend or who is his foe and many more. After Narad was assured by Yudhishtir that he would follow the advice, both of them sat and started talking about other things. Yudhishtir was curious to know about the sabha or halls of other Lokas. He requested Narad to tell him about the qualities of meeting halls of other Lokas in comparison with his Sabha hall. Given below is the account of all Lokas as mentioned by Narad.
