The well attended ceremony pertaining to Rajsuya Yagya was proceeding smoothly. Narad too was attending this function. The next event in this celebration was Aagrah Pooja (अग्र पूजा) i.e honouring the Sages, Learned men and Kings.

Now the question arose who was the most supreme one amongst them. Yudhishtir asked Bhishma to choose. So Bhishma suggested the name of Krishna to which all the Pandavas agreed.

But this did not go well with Shishupal who was also the cousin of Krishna. He objected to Krishna's name and even insulted Bhishma on his choice. He questioned Pandavas for honouring Krishna on this pedestal as Krishna was not even a King. Many more eminent luminaries were present in the hall who were worthy of this honour.

Bhishma, Narad and Yudhishtir tried to pacify Shishupal. Bhishma mentioned the importance of Krishna as he was not just a mortal King but a divine entity who was actually the whole axis of our existence. In order to save this Earth, Krishna took ten Avtaars like Varah, Mohini, Narsingh, Vaman, Vrishabh, Datatreya Parshuram, Ram, at present he is Krishna and last will be Kalki in Kalyug.

On request of Yudhishtir, Bhishma mentioned the extra ordinary events happening in Gokul and Vrindavan where as a small child Krishna killed many Demons while he was playing. No ordinary child would be able to perform this feat. During his childish play he eliminated Shaktasur, Yamalarjun and Putna. He destroyed the ego of Kaliya naag, killed Dhenkasur, Arishtasur and Kansa. He gave back the son of his Guru Sandipani whom the Demons had swallowed. He carried Govardhan Mountain on his fingers to save the people of Gokul. Krishna also eliminated Demons in Dwarka who routinely troubled him especially Narak.

He killed Bhaumasur who had snatched Mata Aditi's earring. He even defeated Banasur even though he had a tough fight with Shiva and got Anirudh released. Krishna has killed nearly one lakh Demons.

After this Sahdev challenged all the Kings present there to come and fight with him if they disagreed with Bhishma. Even Narad endorses the name of Krishna and says he is no ordinary being. Then also under the leadership of Shishupal, Kings like Sunith come forward and accepted the challenge of Sahdev.

Bhishma gets up and apprises the people about the birth of Shishupal. He said that Shishupal was born very ugly with three eyes and four arms. He cried like a donkey. The parents were ready to abandon this child when Akashvani proclaimed that there was no need to be frightened. His death is not destined for now. When time is apt, death will walk to him.

When time is apt, death will walk to him. When the mother asked who would kill him, the voice replied that the one who takes him in the lap and his extra body parts fall down, that person will be the cause of death to this child.

So the parents called various Kings and this child was circulated around but nothing happened. But when his paternal cousin Krishna carried the child in his arms, the extra body parts fell. The frightened aunt looked at Krishna hopefully. Krishna assured his aunt that he would not touch Shishupal upto his hundred mistakes, but he would kill Shishupal on his hundredth mistake. Therefore Shishupal is always rude and full of contempt for Krishna.

At this statement, Shishupal threw a barrage of insults at Bhishma. This angered Bhima who marched towards Shishupal. Bhishma stopped him. Meanwhile between this confrontation, Krishna called for his Sudarshan Chakra which flew towards Shishupal and cut him into two pieces from neck. After that all the formalities of Rajsuya Yagya were completed and all the invitees left including Krishna.
