

Twitter Thread by Jaya_Upadhyaya

Jaya_Upadhyaya

@Jayalko1

SRI GALI ANJANEYA SWAMY MANDIR, BENGALURU (KAR)

Gali means air and it is said that the murti of Anjaneya was open to air more than 800 years back at the sangam of river Vrishabhavathi and Paschmavahini.

On one of his visits, Sri Vyasaraaya Tirtha did Punar pratishtha here.

Sri Anjaneya is shant swaroopi (Calm) here.

He is smeared with sindura. Left hand rests on hip while right hand is in abhya mudra offering nirbhayathvam to bhaktas.

A unique feature is that Anjaneya has moustache and is yathurmuki (facing bhaktas directly with both eyes).

The Rath utsav is held for the last hundred and twenty years.

People visit here to get the blessings of Gali Anjaneya and to get rid of troubles in their life.

They throng here with great faith to get 'Purna Kripa Drishti' from Sri Anjaneya.

