Twitter Thread by The Associated Press

The Associated Press
@AP

Jurors are set to begin deliberations in the Kyle Rittenhouse murder trial. The defense says Rittenhouse acted in self-defense when he fatally shot two men and injured a third during unrest in Kenosha, Wisconsin. Prosecutors say he provoked the bloodshed.

Legal experts look at the closing arguments in the murder trial of Kyle Rittenhouse and which side may have made the stronger argument to jurors. https://t.co/28JjnJo98u

Jurors in the Kyle Rittenhouse trial have begun deliberating on charges related to the shootings of three men during protests against racial injustice last year. One charge Rittenhouse faces — intentional homicide — is punishable by life in prison. https://t.co/LCyN7fFVrB

A judge had Kyle Rittenhouse draw slips of paper from a raffle drum at his own trial to determine which 12 of the 18 jurors who heard the evidence will decide his fate. The six jurors chosen at random will serve as alternates. https://t.co/BiFoojcIwU

Here's a look at the charges Kyle Rittenhouse faces. Rittenhouse shot three men, killing two and wounding the third, during a protest against police brutality in Kenosha, Wisconsin, last year. The case went to the jury today. https://t.co/ANpJovHuQw