Śrī Kanaka Kālīśvarar is one of the 108 important Śiva temples located around Kānchi Kāmākṣī

The temple is shaped like a huge Śivalingam and includes all the Parivāra Devatās of Śiva. It is administered by sincere devotees following the Śaivāgama śāstras.

hinduism_and_science Another Hindu mandir destroyed!!!

Advocates & activists like @jsd.adv please look into this!

Raising our voice is the only thing I can do for now!

The temple premises is (was!) very serene and is referred as Thirugnana Sambandar Tapobhumi, named after one of the most important Nayanars (Tamil Saivite poet-saint).

Atleast hundred people are offered complete food here daily free of cost All expenses are borne by devotees.3/6

A day ago TN government officials barbarically destroyed this ancient and beautiful temple premises!

Hindu devotees first resisted, and begged, after police brutality, for some time to atleast evacuate the murtis of Devi & Devatās.

They were given no time 4/6

Hindu devotees first resisted, and begged, after police brutality, for some time to atleast evacuate the murtis of Devī & Devatās.

They were given no time & the murtis were descreted and trampled upon by the anti-hindu gormint officials!

The reason given was same, just like other temples destroyed by government, that temple is an enroachment on water body
Temples have existed on the banks of rivers, and other Waterbodies for centuries! Rather it's almost mandatory for a ■iva temple to be situated near water 5/6

The reason given was obvious, just like other temples destroyed by government, that the temple is an enroachment on water body!

Hindu temples have existed on the banks of rivers, lakes and other waterbodies for centuries! Rather it's almost mandatory for a Śiva temple to be situated near water!

NO NEWSPAPER OR MEDIA CHANNEL IS COVERING THIS NEWS!

Raising our voice is the only thing WE can do for now!
