Indira was asked by L.M.Singhvi when she was traveling to Afghanistan, she stopped everyone near ruins, bowed her head and stood up.

He started looking in surprise and asked her "who is this, in front of whose Dargah you are standing with folded hands"

@SomuSaumya__ @im__Neeti

Indira says "my ancestors" and was none other than Mughal Babur

In 1976
After putting all that leaders in Jail who were against her, L.M.Singhvi was addressed by Indira Gandhi to find the meaning of "Secular".

After searching a lot of world's dictionary he came to a point where "Secular" means "Panth-Nirapeksh" (■■■-■■■■■■■■).

"Whether the Prime Minister is a Hindu, a Muslim or a Jew, the Indian State can never be neutral to dharma or righteousness. It can and must be neutral to religious faction and identity."

Indira force Singhvi to address Indian's that the "Secular" means "dharm-nirapeksh".

And, she did that. A new Preamble with no decoration, no art work, only simple written form of Preamble is installed with named as 42 amendment and with the word "Secular and Socialist".

Mr. Singhvi pointed out to Indira that “dharma” did not mean religion. It was a most meaningfully rendered as a “concept of righteousness” that was an ancient and foundational ethic of India.

It finds representation in the national flag as the Ashoka Chakra or the Dharma Chakra.

That is why Singhvi urged replacing “dharma-nirpeksh” with “panth-nirpeksh”, panth meaning religious faction, group or sect. But was not followed...he said a situation of war will arises which will not be handled.

How can it be that the PM has no religion, there can be no sect all are equal to PM. But Indira was Indira.

Now the question arises that why all this was done so...?

Because PM has no Dharma then democracy will act as monarchy("India is Indira and Indira is India") and since India: majority of Sanatani's so to rule its a major weapon.

And,

used on Sanatani's till now.

Mitrokhin Archive-KGB(book) Chapter 17-18 which banned in India.

Let's know why..?

Oleg Kalugin, head of FCD’s Directorate K (Counter-Intelligence) in 1973, remembers India as a model of KGB infiltration: ‘We had scores of sources throughout Indian government—in intelligence, counterintelligence, Defence and Foreign Ministries, and police’.

“In 1978 Directorate K was running over thirty agents—ten of whom were Indian intelligence officers. Andropov turned down an offer from an Indian minister to provide information that KGB already well supplied with material from Indian Foreign & Defence Ministries:‘■■ ■■■■■■ ■■■ ■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■ ■■■ ■■■ ■■■■; KGB and CIA had deeply penetrated the Indian government’■■

Lalit Narayan Mishra, also accepted Soviet money.

At least once secret gift of million rupees to Congress secretly on midnight. Another million rupees were given to a newspaper which supported Indira Gandhi.

»Its bitter truth of Indian History after Independence which surely unacceptable by Indians, Netaji and Bhagat Singh ■
