Gita Jayanti is celebrated on Ekadasi tithi in Shukla Paksha of Margashirsha month. It is on this day Shri Krishna gave Geethopadesha to Arjuna during Mahabharata war. During the war when Arjuna sees his own relatives & Guru on the opposite side he becomes reluctant to fight

Shri Krishna who is the charioteer of Arjuna advises Gita at that time.

Krishna advises on what constitutes right action, proper understanding & the meaning of life & nature of Divinity. Also devotion is the path towards self recognition.

Reading Bhagavad Gita solves all problems of our life, teaches importance of self control also do our Karma without any desire. There are 700 verses in 18 adhyay.
