On every Friday, Prabhu's main murti can be seen in the simple along with white dhoti.

Archana anantara darshan on Friday is called Nijapada Darshanam. Normally the feet are covered with Tulsi leaves. But on Friday after performing Abhishekam to Venkateswara...

the feet are left without Tulsi leaves during which Nijapada Darshanam is held which allows devotees to see the feet of Venkateshwara. This is a paid service where the devotees are allowed until Kulasekhara padi.

Prabhu can give darshan to devotees without Tirunamam. The Tirunamam is camphor after the Nijapada seva. Vishnu Padam holds the special place in Hinduism.

For this Nijapada Darshanam, nearly 1000 devotees are allowed to see Srinivasa. After this darshanam Prabhu will erase the illness and problems of Devotees and also bless them with good fortune.
