■The 16 Kalas of Sri Krishn are the divine arts or attributes of Sri Krishn that makes him Purna Avatar – the complete avatar.■

But do you know that Prabhu Sri Ram had only 14 Kalas?

And, there is a reason behind it. First let's see what are the 16 Kalas of Sri Krishn?

1. Daya – Compassion
2. Dharjya – Patience
3. Kshama – Forgiveness
4. Nyaya – Justice
5. Nirapeksha – Impartiality
6. Niraskata – Detachment
7. Tapasya – Meditation and Spiritual Powers
8. Aparchitta – Invincibility

9. Danasheel – Beneficence, Bestower of all wealth in the world and nature.
10. Saundaryamaya – Beauty Incarnate
11. Nriyajna – Best of Dancers
12. Sangitajna – Best of Singers
13. Neetibadi – Embodiment of Honesty
14. Satyabadi – Truth Itself

15. Sarvagnata – Perfect master of all arts, such as poetry, drama, painting etc.

16. Sarvaniyanta – Controller of All.

Sri Ram is complete and absolute; he is the God himself and everything is in him, from him.

However, he is not a complete incarnation as compared to Sri Krishn who is a Poorna Avatar, as he possessed the 14 out of 16 Kalas or qualities in him and 2 were not to be seen. Now there is a reason behind it.

Although Sri Ram is a God almighty but, why he doesn't possess all the 16 qualities that are there in Prabhu Vishnu, whose incarnation Sri Ram is, b'coz Sri Ram appeared on this earth to safeguard the righteousness and annihilate the evil, by killing the demon Ravan.

And since Ravan had a boon that he could be killed by a man and not a God, Sri Ram had to come like a man in this world. And that is the reason why he never displayed the remaining two qualities. For if he would, he could no more be called a man born of a man.

His Brothers

And the result of the absence of the two Kalas could be seen on incidents such as the moment when Sri Ram cried when Maa Sita was abducted by the demon king Ravan,..

..and when he took the aid of monkeys,bears & other beings in his journey to cross ocean & annihilate the evil; these(crying & taking help from others)are qualities,emotions & actions that humans display,not God & the reason he did it was that he was here as a human to kill Ravan.

So basically, he had all the qualities, but he never displayed those just to respect the boon received by Ravan from Brahma to be killed by a man.

The remaining two qualities along with others were present in the next incarnation of Bhagwan Vishnu, Sri Krishn which is why he is called a Poorna-avatar, God almighty, and Parabrahma, the supreme soul who is the cause of all.
