That is,
1.Srihari Vishnu, the ruler of Akashtattva.
2.Maheshwari Shakti, the presiding deity of the AgniTattva,

3. Surya Dev, the ruler of the Vayu Tattva,
4. Mahadev,the presiding deity of the Prithvi Tattva. and
5.  The ruler of the JalTattva is Ganapati.

This Panchatattvamayi proceeds Creation (■■■■■■■)in a safe and gentle form

The scriptures have described these five deities in many forms, and have done that worshiping them collectively is beneficial for every householder.

Their worship is considered necessary even in specific Devopasana, and if they have an inseparable vision from each other, only then there are signs of attainment of accomplishment.

In all the scriptures, along with the worship of the ■■■■■■■■ , the worship of the other four Tattva  Devi/ Devtas  has also been emphasized.  Those who worship the Murti's in their homes should keep the idols of the above five deities in a particular order,

Understand the nature of the order in which they are placed according to the numbers given in the following brackets.
