#antidemocracy: Here are two things that concern me and I don't know why more white evangelicals aren't talking about it. (1) Repub. Lindsay Graham said in 2012, "We’re not generating enough angry white guys to stay in business for the long term.”

(2) Paul Weyrich a founder of the Heritage Foundation + praised up & down by Dobson & others + was a main strategist for Religious Right in 1980 and beyond very clearly said he does not want everyone to vote. It would not be good for the Religious Right. https://t.co/MZhd0LEhsR
